More Education Urged for MN Child-Care Providers

ST. PAUL, Minn. - As children across Minnesota prepare to head back to school, also heading back to class this fall will be some of those who play a critical role in educating the state's youngest kids.

With the importance of quality early childhood education for future success, said Valerie Peterson, director of financial support for Child Care Aware of Minnesota, there's been a call to increase the educational achievements of those providing child care. (contd.)
